

NSS SEVEN DAYS SPECIAL CAMP

25-12-2018 TUESDAY

The NSS Unit of Little Flower college, Guruvayoor organized a seven day special camp at the Guruvayoor Municipality Kottapadi from 25-12-2018 to 31-12-2018. The camp was held in the 32nd and 33rd ward of Guruvayoor. All the volunteers reported at the camp venue by 3pm on the Christmas day for registration. The required necessities for the camp was placed accordingly by the volunteers. All the parents left the camp after ensuring the safety of their wards. By 4pm the announcement of the camp was auspiciously started off by a proclamatory procession. The proclamatory procession was flagged off by the ward counsellor of the 32nd ward Mrs. Maggie Albert. The flag was received by the camp leader Kumari. NinyPrethew. The volunteers then marched off with the santaclaus, along the allies and pocket road of 31st and 32nd ward. There was a class at 5pm by Lovely Jacob A, Assistant Professor, Little Flower college, Guruvayoor, on the topic 'Yuvajanakriyathmagathayumsevanavum'. After the session 6 groups were formed and were assigned with various works and by 10pm, the volunteers left for bed.

The proclamatory procession was flagged off by the ward counsellor of the 32rd ward Mrs. Maggie Albert.

class at 5pm by Lovely Jacob A, Assistant Professor, Little Flower college, Guruvayoor, on the topic 'Yuvajanakriyathmagathayumsevanavum'.

26-12-2018 WEDNESDAY

The second day of the camp started with a blessed morning at 5.30am. The official inauguration of the seven day camp was today's highlight. The ceremony commenced with the lighting of the lamp by the Sr.Little Mary, Provincial superior, Assissi Thrissur province and the NSS programme officer, Sr. Teresa J Heloise welcomed all the dignitaries present on the dais and the gathered. The presidential address was given by Rev.Sr.Dr. Moly Clare. She mentioned about the NSS and the aims about bringing together a group of core students to work for the society with unity. The message of the day was given by Professor. PK ShanthaKumari. The inspiring words of Guruvayoor Municipality Chairperson Professor ShanthaKumari teacher helped us show the right path to socially committed life. Smt. Anishma and Smt. Maggie Albert, the ward counsellors were also present. At 2pm, the volunteers attended the class 'niyamabodhavalkaranam' by Sri.Vimod, SI Guruvayoor temple police. At 3pm, the volunteers went out for a rally and performed the street play 'jagratha' about AIDS awareness. By 5pm, the volunteers went for the mission 'veeduveedantharamadukkalathottanirmanam'.

The ceremony commenced with the lighting of the lamp by the Sr.Little Mary, Provincial superior, Assissi Thrissur province ‘niyamabodhavalkaranam’ by Sri.Vimod, SI Guruvayoor temple police.

the volunteers went out for a rally and performed the street play 'jagratha' about AIDS awareness.

Door to door campaign on waste composting and creation of Kitchen Garden

27-12-2018 THURSDAY

The third day of the NSS camp started with blessed morning at 5.30am. All the volunteers gathered in the common hall for yoga. Following it, the camp assembly was held out with the camp paper. At 10am the volunteers set out for their first big step to complete their mission 'pachakkarithottanirmithikorumadhrka'. For that, the volunteers cleaned the Pookkodekrishibhavan and set up a vegetable garden. While few volunteers stayed back at the camp site for leading another three day programme 'kinginikoottam'. At 1pm the camp volunteers returned and had their lunch. At 2pm there was a cloth bag making class led by the students of St.Teresa's college, Eranakulam, Vedha and Meenakshi. At 4pm, the volunteers went out for a rally and performed a street play "kenikoodu" at Kottapadi centre, giving awareness on drug and alcohol. The play attempted to clear various myth against drug abuse encouraged the addicts and their families to seek proper treatment. By 5pm, the volunteers attended a class by Mr.Unni, on the topic, 'veetilenanmaakathumpurathum'. At 8pm the cultural programme began and at 10pm the volunteers left to bed.

'pachakkarithottanirmithikiorumadhrka'- volunteers cleaned the Pookkodekrishibhavan and set up a vegetable garden.

BEFORE

AFTER

Kinginikootum- 3day Edutainment programme for children of ward 32 and 33

Visit Of the District Programme Co ordinator

Anti Narcotics Awareness Rally

Anti Narcotic Awareness Street play

class by Mr. Unni, on the topic, 'veetilenanmaakathumpurathum'

28-12-2018 FRIDAY

The fourth day of the camp. At 5.30am the day started off with the as usual warm up session and the camp assembly with the publishing of the camp paper. The volunteers then had breakfast at 8.30am. They all got ready to set out for the mission, 'swachhgramam, sundaragramam’ and at the same those volunteers leading the kinginikoottam stood back. The first day of the mission was quite exciting. All the volunteers were much energised with the work they were allotted with and at the same time, the kinginikoottam was well conducted with mush interesting games and craft. By 1pm, the volunteers returned and had their lunch. At 2pm, an orientation class on the topic ‘cyber lokam’ was conducted by Sri.SurendranMangad, vigilance officer. The class taught us how to prevent and respond to cyber bullying. At 4pm, the volunteers performed a street play, ‘kaakkaparayunnu’ on cleanliness at Kottapadi junction and in front of Kottapadi church. At 5pm, the volunteers set forth for the mission, ‘veeduveedantharamadukkalathottanirmanavum, composting parisheelanavum’. By 8pm volunteers had their dinner followed by cultural programmes. By 10pm the volunteers went to bed after a tiring day.

Plastic waste collection from various roads

‘cyberlokam’ was conducted by Sri.SurendranMangad, vigilance officer

Rally creating awareness of reduced use of plastic and creation of clean and green world

Street play 'Kaka Parayunu' awareness on citizen responsibilities for clean country.

29-12-2018 SATURDAY

The fifth day of the camp has come in. At 5.30am, as usual the day began with the warm up and Yoga session, led by Niny and Aiswarya, the NSS camp leaders. Then the volunteers gathered up for the camp assembly and for the camp paper. By 8.30am, all the volunteers had their breakfast and got ready to complete their mission, 'swachhgramam, sundaragramam'. While those volunteers for kinginikoottam stood back, this was their final day for completing their three day mission. The volunteers worked tirelessly for few hours. At 1pm, the programme ended with much joy and they had their lunch. At 2pm, there was a conventional class by Dr.Jisna Joy, which was attended by the camp volunteers as well as the women from nearby places. At 4pm, the volunteers performed the street play, 'kudumbabandhangal' at Kottapadi junction. At 5pm, the volunteers set forth for the mission 'veeduveednatharamadukkalathottanirmanavum, composting parisheelanavum'. By 8pm, the volunteers had supper, followed by cultural programmes. By 10pm, everyone went to bed.

Sthree:
ShuchithwawumParipoos
hanavum- health and entertainment programme for local women-by Dr.Jisna Joy

Street play on family relations and its positive effect on wellbeing

30-12-2018 SUNDAY

The sixth day of the camp had begun at 5.30 am. All the volunteers got ready for the warm up session which has followed by the camp assembly. The volunteers then had their breakfast and at 9.30am the volunteers attended a class led by Mr.Babu Jacob, on the topic, 'vyayamamnithyajeevithathil'. The parents day registration started at 11am and 11.30am the parents attended the class, 'yugathalamurayumrakshithakkalum, by Srimati.ShirleyRajan. At 1pm, the volunteers had lunch with their parents. The lunch for the day was brought by the parents. At 2pm, the volunteers arranged cultural programmes for the parents. The valedictory function started at 2.30pm. The function was inaugurated by Srimati.ShanthaKumari teacher, the Guruvayoor Municipality Chairperson. The NSS programme officer, Sr.Teresa J Heloise welcomed the gathering. The presidential address was given by Rev.Sr.Dr.Moly Clair. The camp magazine 'karuthal' was published by Rev.Sr.Jyothi Francis, assistant provincial superior, assissithirssur province. The felicitation speech was given by Aiswarya, camp leader. The camp leader, NinyPrethew read the camp report. At 8pm the volunteers had supper, followed by cultural programmes and camp fire.

Parents Day

Closing Ceremony

31-12-2018 MONDAY

The day started at 6am. At 7.30 am, the camp evaluation begun and the volunteers shared their experience of the seven day camp. By 9.30am the volunteers had breakfast and started cleaning the premises and collected plastic waste. The plastic waste from the road infront of the camp area was also collected and it was seen that all the waste collected taken to the area provided by the municipality for that purpose.