Nawab Salim Ullah Khan proposed the formation of the All India Muslim League

- The Muslim League was founded by the admireres, companions, and followers of Aligarh Movement.
- The meeting was attended by three thousand delegates and presided over by Nawab Waqar-ul-Mulk Kamboh. Nawab Mohsin-ul-Mulk, and Ameer Ali were also the founding fathers.

The AIME Conference in 1906, held at the Ahsan Manzil palace of the Dhaka Nawab Family, laid the foundation of the Muslim League.

- When All India Muslim League came into existence, it was a moderate organization with its basic aim to establish friendly relations with the Crown. However, due to the decision of the British Government to annul the partition of Bengal, the Muslim leadership decided to change its stance.
- In 1913, a new group of Muslim leaders entered the folds of the Muslim League with the aim of bridging the gulf between the Muslims and the Hindus. The most prominent amongst them was Muhammad Ali Jinnah, who was already a member of Indian National Congress.
- The Muslim League changed its major objective and decided to join hands with the Congress in order to put pressure on the British government.
