Sr. Dr. Treesa Domanic. The meeting began with the invocation to God. Sr. Vincy Tom, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of Botany, delivered the welcome speech. PTA Secretary Rev. Sr. Dr. Moly Clare presented the PTA report of the academic year 2013-14.

Rev. Sr. Dr. Treesa Domanic delivered the Presidential address. The Principal sought the attention of all PTA members to discuss and plan the Diamond Jubilee year of the college. In her presidential address, the principal made a brief evaluation of the achievements made by the college in the past academic year. Sister pointed out that Little Flower Family excels in quality education and she also highlighted the fact that God has blessed the efforts of the college by providing good results in the past academic year.

Along with the curricular activities students showed their merit in co-curricular activities also. To mould a student, a good family background is needed and parents should enquire about the student. A teacher should be an inspiration behind the student. Sister also mentioned that the misuse of mobiles will affect the future of students. Sister convinced the parents that study tours are part of their curriculum and they should engage in it. She expressed her desire for the NAAC visit this year for the progress of the college. She concluded her address by extending her gratitude for the support and co-operation of PTA executive members.

The expert class provided by Jisha Elizabeth, Assistant Professor, Malayalam, Vimala college, Thrissur about NAAC visit and the preparations for it. She makes aware of all parents about their duty to mould their children as responsible citizens.

It was followed by a discussion led by PTA vice president Dr. C. B, Valsalan.
