Aim: To inculcate self-employment and entrepreneurship skills among students

Objectives: Give motivation classes to develop a platform to make our students self employed by making and selling the daily-use items like soap, hand wash fine oil etc.

With the intention of developing self-employment skills in students, Department of Malayalam, Little Flower College launched a self-employment project named "Naipuni 2019" for students. "Naipuni 2019" was implemented by the Penma Club on October 1, 2017. Sri.Varghese Paul, owner and prominent entrepreneur of the Center for Alternative Learning and Living Together, inaugurated "Naipuni 2019". Dr. Sr. Sheeba A. C, HOD, Malayalam Department presided over the function. Dr Annam Sini A P welcomed the gathering and Sumitha P K proposed the vote of thanks. He urged the students how to be self-employed and live. He then gave a class about nine home-made items, including soap making and Finoil making for students and did a demonstration as well. Students were given samples of each, and then they were taught each month how to make all these things and what type of materials they needed.
