19.06.2021: Reading day Celebrations

Department of Mathematics and Statistics celebrated the Reading Day in online mode during June.

● 19.06.2021: Observation of Reading day by II M.Sc. Mathematics

National Reading day is celebrated on 19 June as a remembrance of P.N Panicker, the father of 'Library and Literacy Movement in Kerala'. As a part of the silver jubilee year, the I M.Sc. Mathematics students of Little flower college conducted an online programme at 12 :30 pm on 19-06-2021 via Google meet to promote and share the importance of the Reading as a habit. 27 students & 2 Faculty members participated in the function. The participants shared their experience about the journey of reading and encouraged all to read. Three of the participants Jissa Mariya (Dongri to Dubai by S. Hussain Zaidi), Sandra Rose (Whuthering Heights by Emily Brontë) and Haripriya T.S (Goat Days by Benyamin) shared a brief review of the books they read and made us believe the beauty of reading.

● 19.06.2021: Observation of Reading day by II B.Sc. Mathematics Students

II B.Sc. Mathematics students of Little Flower College conducted an online programme on 19.06.2021 to celebrate reading day. Dr. Mariamma Antony, Dr. Lejo J. Manavalan, Ms. Amita Shaji and students of II B.Sc. Mathematics had attended session at 4.00pm. Anjali. M delivered a speech about the importance of reading day. Review of the famous book “Think Like A Monk” written by Jay Shetty was introduced by Anjana Viswanathan and Gayathri P recited a poem “Aswamedham” written by V. Madhusoodanan Nair. The faculty members shared their thoughts about the importance of reading.

15.08.2021: INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

“Freedom in our mind, faith in words, pride in our souls.” On 15th August 2021, India celebrated its 75th Independence Day. We salute the brave heroes for their courageous & determined effort which freed us from the British clutches back in 1947. The III BSc Mathematics students of Little Flower College, Guruvayoor as a part of Independence Day celebrations prepared a video titled “MOKSH” reflecting on the significance of this day. It started off with an introduction by Shahana C, followed by a small dance & a patriotic song. Then it took us back to some of the major events of our Freedom struggle. The video was concluded by Aswathi PD.
