

Best Female Photographer Contest 2021

Multimedia department of Little Flower College organized a photography competition for female photographers on March 8th in connection with International Women's Day. The very purpose of the photography competition was to identify the best female photographer. It was a creative event at which the participants got an opportunity to click and share their photographs. Among the 34 contestants, Hridhitha Devi from Pondicherry University, Mahe Campus bagged the first prize. Certificate and cash prizes were given to the winner. The cash prize was sponsored by Lime Media.

Online Magazine Release “Tribal Tribune” - 16th December 2020

On 16th December 2020, the Department of Multimedia Conducted an Online Magazine Release “Tribal Tribune” as a representation of four magazines created by MA Multimedia students. The magazine was inaugurated by Seema Suresh, Nature and Wild Life Photographer.

Photography Competition in Connection with International Photography Day

The Multimedia Department of Little Flower College organized an intercollegiate photography competition among the college students in connection with International Photography Day. The theme for the photography contest was 'Survival'.

Students were advised to send their photographs in between 10th August to 17th August 2021. Each participant was asked to submit an original unedited photograph in JPEG format. Total 5 students participated in the competition. Judges declared the result of the Competition on 19th August 2020, International Photography Day. The winner for the competition was Preethi B from Mercy College, Palakkad.

On 10th March 2020, Pooja Kalyan blooming youtuber from 2nd MA Multimedia secured Silver Button for her YouTube channel "Team Theevandi". Team Theevandi is a comedy & relatable short video channel. Team Theevandi crossed over 139K subscribers. She is earning around 50,000/- per work