READING WEEK CELEBRATION [JUNE 19-25TH 2021]

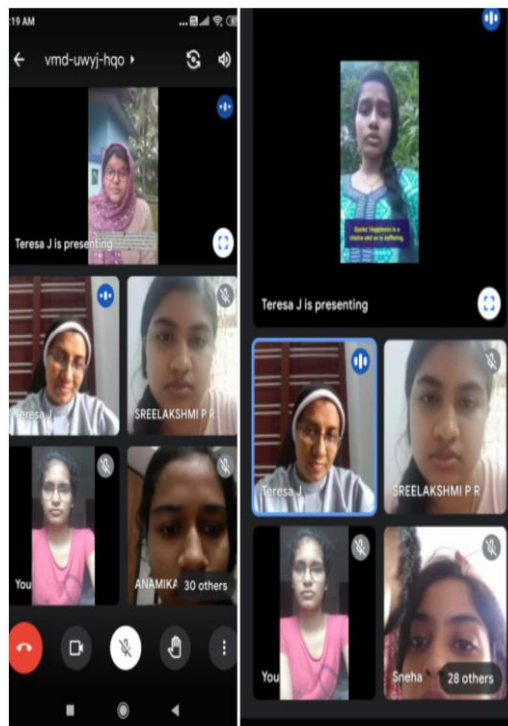

Short video competition – 24/06/2021

Book plays an important role in the lives of students by introducing them to a world of imagination, providing knowledge of the outside world, improving their reading, writing and speaking skills as well as improving their memory and intelligence. Due to these innumerable benefits of books it's important to celebrate this week. According to the discussions held in group, students and teachers of second semester English conducted a programme 'An inspiring quote from an inspiring book' on 24/6/2021, which helped students to recollect the read books. It was a programme which highlighted how a book can act so powerfully.

Sr Teresa J Heloise coordinated the programme and students from second semester English organised it. All the participants were requested to record a video which tells how the quote from the book they read impacted them, and these videos are presented in google meet held by the class. Programme was around 30 minutes at 9:00 Am.

The programme was a refreshing one which inspires everyone to read books throughout their life.

The winners of the programme ANAMIKA C B and NADHA FAISEL were congratulated by the coordinators.

National Education Day- 2021 November 11th

Model making contest

In Connection to National Education Day the department conducted a unique contest. All you need to do is make. Students were asked to make a 3D presentation of a scene from a play/ novel or an image in a poem of all English Literatures. The model should be within 18cms height 20cms breadth and 30cms length. They were allowed to use toys, clay etc., but things that dry or decay are not to be used. The name of the work, the Author, a significant line that is very intricately connected to the scene presented should be fixed artistically within the model. The students were asked to submit their models on or before 25th November 2021. The models were exhibited on 26th November 2021.

Valentine's day – 14th February

Your Valentine- Epistle Riddle Braker

A delighted moment and well spent day of the year. A day filled with feeling of happiness, sharing and joy. The event began around 10.00am in the morning. Though, it was a well-planned event, bright ideas broke through and made the day a colourful one. Candles lit around the table; decorations done by the students of English Department made the day a memorable one. All the decorations including the heart shaped red candles were home made by the students. Letters were passed on to the loved ones which made the whole class suspicious. YOUR VALENTINE-EPISTLE RIDDLE BRAKER programme was the main highlight of the day. Students wrote valentine's day letters putting to use their flair for writing and the letters were read during the programme. The audience had to guess who the letter was addressed to using the clues embedded in the letter. There were 52 participants.
