

Creative Writing Cell Annual Report - 2021-22

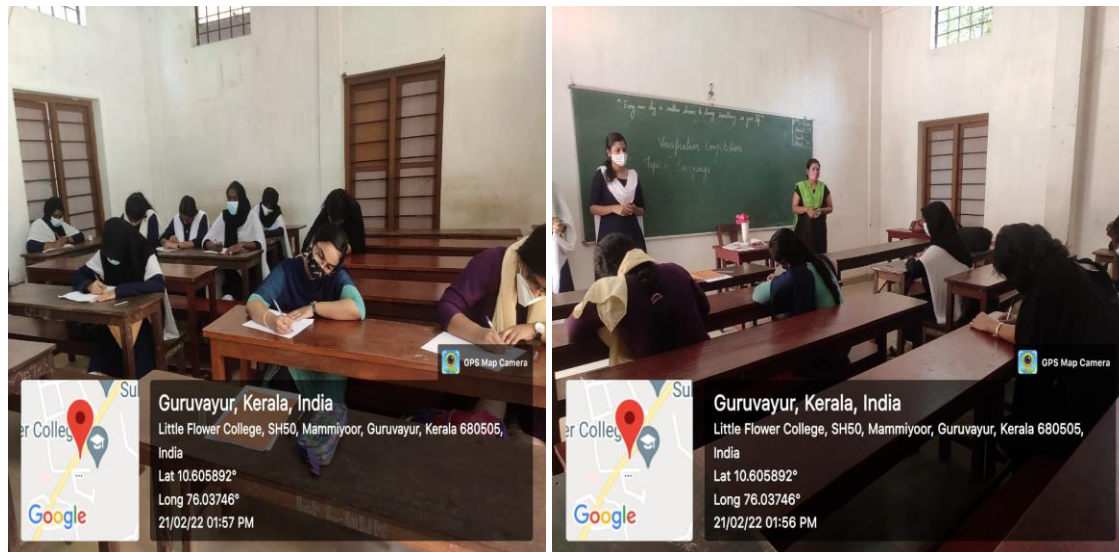

In adherence to our commitment to fostering creativity and engagement, the Creative Writing Cell orchestrated several impactful events aligning with significant days throughout the year.

Peace Poem Competition (September 21st, 2022):

In honor of the International Day of Peace, the Creative Writing Cell hosted an intercollegiate poem writing competition themed "Peace." Coordinated by Teresa J Heloise, Assistant Professor, Department of English, participants were invited to submit their entries via WhatsApp. This event provided a platform for students to express their thoughts and reflections on peace through the power of poetry.

Estrofa: Versification Contest (February 21st, 2021)

On February 21st the Creative Writing Cell conducted the "Estrofa" Versification Competition, centered around the theme of "Language." Held on February 21st, 2021, in Room No: 29, Laverna Block, this contest saw the participation of 11 students from various departments. Winners were recognized and awarded, while all participants received E-Certificates as tokens of appreciation.

These activities, organized under the banner of the Creative Writing Cell, not only encouraged literary expression but also promoted meaningful engagement with themes of peace and language.
