

Malayalam Research centre, Activity Report 2018-19

Malayalam Research centre of Little Flower College Guruvayoor, under the University of Calicut started in 2019 by the recognition of University Order No. 513/2019/admin dated 14.01.2019. Through this research centre the Management of this college aimed to promote the research activities of Malayalam research Scholars under university of Calicut. Malayalam department is proud of being the first research centre of the College, with four research guides. The management of this college took initiative to start the research centre with all the infrastructure facilities to promote a research culture in the campus. We introduced a research forum for the smooth running of the research activities of the Department.

Research Policy of the Department of Malayalam

The research policy of the College aims at promoting research aptitude among faculty according to the vision and mission of our college for the future development of the Institution. To promote the research policy of the College, Research department of Malayalam giving chances for the systematic and scientific research in Malayalam. Identifying modern trends of research methodology, choosing relevant significance in academic and socially challenged areas of research, make the scholars capable of preparing scientific thesis. The department provides a platform for the research scholars to facilitate the new horizons of research in Malayalam language and Literature through research oriented discussions, Seminars, workshops, Paper presentations and published works, so that they can produce fruitful Ph. D Thesis. It also aims at ensuring the research activities of the college should be applicable according to the rules and regulations of University of Calicut and to the U. G. C. established standards and norms relating to the ethical conduct of research. The Inauguration of research centre by Dr Krishnsakumary, Principal, Sree Keralavarma College, Thrissur.

The official inauguration of the research centre of Malayalam Department was held on 25th January 2019 followed by a National Seminar. Dr. K. Krishnakumari Pricipal of Sree Kerala Varma College Thrissur inaugurated the solemn ceremony and our College Principal Rev.Sr.Dr.Moly Clare presides over the function. Dr. Ummer Tharammel, Associate Professor, Department Of Malayalam, Calicut University, Prof. T.Anitha Kumary, Dean and Registrar in charge of Malayalam University Thiroor and Dr.K.K Baburaj, Associate Professor in Malayalam, M. G. Govt. Arts College Mahe, were the resource the resource person of the seminar The Plural Trends of Renaissance in Literature and Social Construction. Research scholars and faculty of other institutions also attended and presented papers in the seminar.

