On September 10, people across the world celebrated Home Care Day to acknowledge the hard work and dedication of homemakers who take care of their homes and family. Unfortunately, in today's society, people who do housework, especially women, are often not given the recognition they deserve for the work they do. In light of this, students from the National Service Scheme took it upon themselves to do the housework and then cleaned the coastal areas of Nalamanikat with the objective of environmental cleanliness. Women were also provided with boating training to empower them and ensure their safety.

India is set to host the 9th Session of the Governing Body of the 'International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture' (ITPGRFA). This is an important event as it formally acknowledges the enormous contribution of indigenous people and small-holder farmers as traditional custodians of the world's food crops. To honor this, the National Service Scheme Unit 48 Volunteers of Guruvayur Little Flower College took part in planting and caring for plants like bananas in the agriculture garden of the college. The students shared the message that the growth and nutrition of vegetables are very important for the survival of human life in the coming times

The community service initiative undertaken by Guruvayoor Little Flower College National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 48 on September 26, 2022, is commendable. The distribution of food packets to indigent patients at Chavakkad Taluk Head Quarters Hospital reflects a strong commitment to community welfare and social responsibility. The NSS Unit demonstrated compassion by addressing the needs of indigent patients. Providing essential support, such as food packets, contributes significantly to the well-being of individuals facing challenges, particularly in a hospital setting.

The fact that the distribution was carried out with the permission of the hospital authorities indicates a responsible and coordinated effort. This collaboration ensures that the assistance provided aligns with the hospital's protocols and regulations.

Engaging in community service initiatives showcases the NSS Unit's dedication to social responsibility. By actively participating in activities that benefit the community, the NSS Unit plays a vital role in fostering a sense of responsibility among its members.

The initiative goes beyond immediate assistance and contributes to the overall welfare of the community. Actions like these not only address immediate needs but also promote a sense of solidarity and support within the community. Such initiatives underscore the positive impact that educational institutions and their affiliated organizations, like the NSS Unit, can have on the broader community. By actively engaging in acts of kindness and service, the NSS Unit exemplifies the values of empathy, responsibility, and community building

On October 2nd, Gandhi Jayanti, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 048 at Little Flower College, Guruvayoor, organized a special event that focused on cleaning activities at the volunteers' house premises. The event aimed to honor Mahatma Gandhi's principles, particularly his emphasis on cleanliness and community service.

Including cleaning activities at the volunteers' house premises adds a personal touch to the event, as it involves the immediate surroundings of the NSS volunteers. This can foster a sense of responsibility among the volunteers for maintaining cleanliness not only in public spaces but also within their own living spaces.

Such events not only pay tribute to Mahatma Gandhi but also actively contribute to the cleanliness and hygiene of the community. They promote a spirit of service, community engagement, and awareness about the importance of cleanliness in our daily lives.

The initiative taken by the Guruvayur Municipality in association with Little Flower College National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 48, other educational Institutions, Police, Excise and Vimukthy Mission organizing a program focused on anti-drug awareness for the youth is commendable. The program, which took place on October 6, 2022, at Guruvayur Kaustubham Auditorium, involved the active participation of National Service Scheme volunteers. The joint efforts of various departments and organizations reflect a community-wide approach to tackling the challenges posed by drug abuse among the youth.

One notable outcome of the program was the decision to establish two clubs within Guruvayur College, namely Shraddha Nerkkootam. These clubs are intended to spearhead and lead anti-drug activities within the college community. The formation of these clubs showcases a proactive step toward creating awareness and preventing drug abuse among the students.

It's great to see that the program brought together different stakeholders, including educational institutions, law enforcement, and municipal authorities, to address the issue collaboratively. This multi-faceted approach is likely to have a more significant impact in creating a drug-free environment and promoting a healthier lifestyle among the youth.

6th October 2022 a proactive involvement of Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 volunteers in the observance of Cerebral Palsy Day. The focus on discussing the use of Ayurvedic medicines for treating Cerebral Palsy is a valuable initiative that highlights the holistic approach to healthcare. The choice of Aushadhi Garden as the venue for the discussion aligns with the theme, showcasing the significance of medicinal plants in traditional healing practices, particularly in Ayurveda. The students' curiosity about Ayurvedic medicines for Cerebral Palsy reflects an eagerness to explore alternative and natural methods of treatment. Moreover, the emphasis on planting more medicinal plants, presumably those relevant to the treatment of Cerebral Palsy, demonstrates a forward-looking approach. By advocating for the cultivation of these plants, the NSS volunteers are contributing not only to the awareness of Ayurvedic remedies but also to the sustainability of these resources for future healthcare needs. The students' awareness and concern for ensuring the availability of medicinal plants underscore a community-driven commitment to healthcare. This initiative not only benefits those currently affected by Cerebral Palsy but also sets a precedent for responsible and sustainable healthcare practices within the community.

The initiative taken by the Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS unit to plant trees in the college as part of the International Day of the Girl is commendable. The decision to align the tree-planting activity with the slogan 'One girl for one tree' not only contributes to environmental conservation but also symbolizes the recognition of girls' rights and their essential role in society.

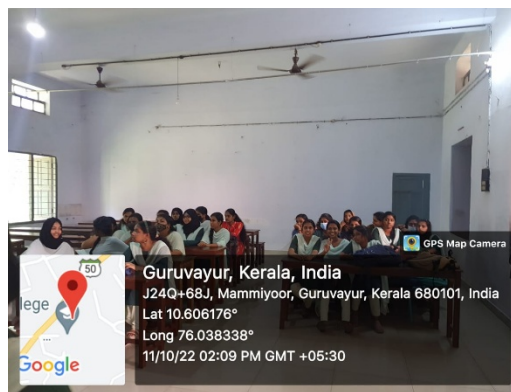

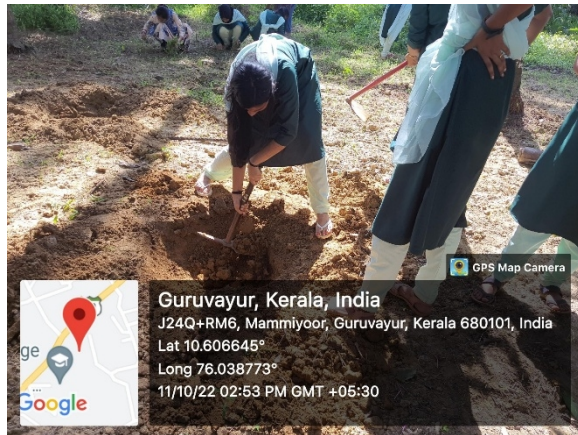

The choice of October 11th, designated as the International Day of the Girl by the United Nations, adds significance to the event. This international observance aims to highlight the unique challenges that girls face globally and advocates for their empowerment, education, and well-being.

By linking the tree-planting initiative to this important day, the Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS unit not only contributes to environmental sustainability but also emphasizes the importance of nurturing and supporting the growth of girls, both symbolically and practically.

The connection between soil, trees, and girls as the necessities of nature is a powerful metaphor that underscores the interdependence of environmental conservation and the well-being of girls. This initiative not only raises awareness about environmental issues but also promotes a sense of responsibility towards empowering and safeguarding the rights of girls within the community. We also conducted a Debate competition as part of this. Group 2 winners of this competition. Group 1

OCTOBER 13 : QUIZ COMPETITION

It's great to learn about the proactive engagement of Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit is organizing a quiz competition as part of the Anti-Drug Week organized by the University of Calicut. Such initiatives play a crucial role in raising awareness and educating the community about the harmful effects of drug abuse.

The choice to conduct a quiz competition adds an interactive and engaging element to the awareness program, making it not only informative but also enjoyable for participants. The involvement of Mr. Derry Paul a political science teacher, as the quiz master likely brought a professional and educational touch to the event.

Congratulations to Anushree Jayashankar, the second-year Zoology student, for emerging as the winner of the quiz competition. Her achievement not only showcases her knowledge on the subject but also reflects a commitment to staying informed about the issues related to drug abuse.

Quiz competitions are effective tools for promoting learning and creating a platform for healthy competition, especially when addressing important social issues like drug abuse. The success of this event suggests a positive and proactive approach by Guruvayur Flower College NSS Unit in contributing to the Anti-Drug Week organized by the University of Calicut

2022 October18

The initiative taken by Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 to organize an anti-drug campaign march is commendable. This event, conducted on October 18, was part of a broader set of anti-drug campaign programs in the college. The march, which started from the college, reached Mammiyur Center, and then returned, aimed to raise awareness and actively involve the public in anti-drug activities.

The decision to organize a march indicates a commitment to engage not only the college community but also the broader public. By extending the march to Mammiyur Center and involving the public, the NSS Unit sought to create awareness beyond the college premises.

The march's objective to urge the public to be active participants in anti-drug activities aligns with the idea of community involvement in combating the issue. Encouraging public participation can lead to a collective effort in addressing the challenges associated with drug abuse

Mentioning that the NSS-led activities were in accordance with the state government's direction underscores the alignment of the college's efforts with broader policy initiatives. It reflects a coordinated approach to curbing the increasing use of drugs, particularly among the youth

The anti-drug campaign march serves as a preventive measure by creating awareness about the consequences of drug abuse. By taking the message to the streets and involving the public, the NSS Unit contributes to a holistic approach to drug prevention.

This anti-drug campaign march not only addresses the immediate concerns related to drug abuse but also emphasizes the role of educational institutions and organizations like NSS in fostering a sense of social responsibility. By actively participating in such campaigns, Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 contributes to the larger goal of creating a drug-free and healthy community

2022 OCTOBER 26 , 27 ,28 :

The involvement of Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 in conducting anti-drug campaign programs is a commendable effort. Presenting an anti-drug campaign play on October 26, 27, and 28, within the college premises, indicates a proactive approach to raising awareness about the dangers of substance abuse. This initiative likely aimed to educate students and the college community about the harmful effects of drugs while promoting a drug-free and healthy lifestyle.

The fact that the campaign was conducted within the college premises indicates a focus on raising awareness among the immediate college community. This approach may contribute to creating a drug-free environment within the college campus. The participation of NSS Unit 48 in organizing and executing the campaign reinforces the commitment of the National Service Scheme to promoting social awareness and community welfare.

By addressing the issue of drug abuse through creative and educational means, Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 demonstrates a proactive stance in fostering a healthy and responsible community. Such initiatives contribute significantly to the overall well-being and development of students and the college community.

October 27

Bhodhapoornima -Laharivirudha karmasena

The involvement of Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 in the Bodhapurnima program on October 27, 2022, organized by the state government in Thiruvananthapuram, reflects the unit's commitment to anti-drug activities. The volunteers actively participated online in this event, and their engagement extended to the formation and inauguration of the anti-drug task force within the college, following the directives of the state government. The inauguration of the program by the Minister of Higher Education, Prof. R Bindu, and the participation of Dr. Anser, NSS State Cell Program Coordinator, add significant importance to the event. By actively participating in both the state-level program and the formation of an anti-drug task force at the college level, Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 demonstrates its role in the larger framework of societal well-being. Such initiatives contribute to creating a more informed and vigilant community against the challenges posed by drug abuse.

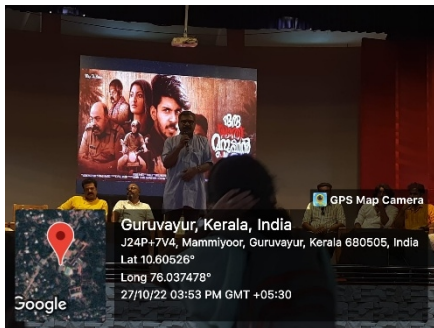

OCTOBER 27 : ANTI DRUGS AWARENESS CAMPAIGN

The program organized by Guruvayur Little Flower College National Service Scheme (NSS) 48th Unit to promote anti-drug activities as part of the state government's campaign is commendable. The participation of prominent figures from culture, literature, and cinema adds weight to the initiative.

Aligning the program with the state government's anti-drug campaign activities indicates a coordinated effort to address the issue of substance abuse. This collaboration enhances the impact and reach of the anti-drug initiative. The participation of notable individuals from culture, literature, and cinema brings credibility and visibility to the program. Their involvement suggests a shared concern for the societal impact of substance abuse and a commitment to raising awareness. The focus on speakers addressing the importance of giving up alcoholism for the betterment of society reflects a holistic approach to the anti-drug campaign. Acknowledging the specific challenges posed by alcoholism and advocating for its cessation aligns with the broader goal of creating healthier communities. Recognizing the potential havoc that alcoholism and substance abuse can wreak on communities emphasizes the program's commitment to community well-being. Raising awareness about the dangers of substance abuse contributes to creating informed and vigilant communities. The promotion of an anti-drug theme cinema, 'Oru Jathi Manushyan,' indicates a creative and impactful approach to delivering the anti-drug message. Cinema has the potential to reach a wide audience and evoke emotional responses that contribute to better understanding the consequences of substance abuse.

In summary, this program reflects a comprehensive and collaborative effort to tackle the issue of substance abuse. By leveraging the influence of prominent individuals and incorporating creative elements like cinema, Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS 48th Unit is actively contributing to raising awareness about the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse for the betterment of society.

November 15: SAKHI ONE STOP CLASS

On November 15, Little Flower College NSS Unit organized a program called "Sakhi One-Stop Class" aimed at educating women and girls about protection against direct violence. The class was led by Mrs. Shruti Peethambaran, a Caseworker from Thrissur Sakhi One Stop Center. The Sakhi One-Stop Centre Scheme is part of the National Mission for Empowerment of Women, including the Indira Gandhi Matritva Sahayog Yojana. The Ministry of Women and Child Development (MWCD) designed this centrally-sponsored scheme with the goal of establishing one-stop centers nationwide. These centers provide integrated support to women, offering assistance to break free from the cycle of violence, whether in private or public spaces. The program reflects the commitment of Little Flower College NSS Unit to address and combat violence against women, providing education and support to empower women and girls in their community.

November 22

The participation of Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 volunteers in cleaning the fish pond area near the NSS Agriculture Garden on World Fisheries Day, November 22, 2022, is a commendable and environmentally conscious initiative.

The act of cleaning the fish pond area on World Fisheries Day reflects a heightened awareness of the importance of environmental cleanliness. It acknowledges the connection between a healthy environment and the well-being of nature and all living beings.

Choosing World Fisheries Day for this activity aligns the cleanup effort with the global observance. It emphasizes the importance of sustainable fisheries and responsible environmental practices.

In summary, the participation of Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 in cleaning the fish pond area on World Fisheries Day demonstrates a proactive commitment to environmental stewardship and community service. The efforts of the students contribute to raising awareness about the importance of environmental cleanliness and fostering a sense of responsibility toward the natural world.

An event organized by the NSS Unit of Little Flower College Guruvayoor on November 29, 2022, focusing on the topic of "Indian Constitution and Individual Freedom." Principal Dr. Valsa M Ainaugurated the programme. The participation of NSS Programme Officer Dr. Annam Sini A P, faculty Mr. Derry Paul, Adv. Vishnu Priyan, and Paralegal Volunteers Mrs. Supriya and Mrs. Sajitha must have added valuable insights and support to the program.

The inclusion of an awareness class by Adv. Haridas, a faculty member from KILA, likely provided attendees with a deeper understanding of the subject matter. Events like these contribute significantly to the education and awareness of important topics within the community.

Run for Unity

"Run for Unity" is an annual event in India that takes place on or around October 31st to commemorate the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, who was a key figure in the Indian independence movement and played a crucial role in the integration of princely states into the newly independent India. The event aims to promote the idea of unity, integrity, and the vision of a United India.

Sardar Patel, often referred to as the "Iron Man of India," was the first Deputy Prime Minister and Home Minister of India. The "Run for Unity" event encourages people from all walks of life to participate in runs or walks organized across the country to celebrate Patel's contributions and to emphasize the importance of unity among the diverse communities in India.

During these events, on 3rd December 2022, NSS volunteers of Little Flower College Guruvayoor often participate in a run together to symbolize the unity and integrity of the nation. The initiative is part of the government's efforts to spread awareness about Sardar Patel's legacy and his role in the nation-building process. The event is not only a tribute to a key architect of modern India but also serves as a reminder of the significance of national unity and the need to overcome divisions for the greater good.

There was two classes organized by Guruvayoor Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 on 26th December 2022 at Little Flower Convent Higher Secondary School, Mammiyoor. The first class was on "NSS and personal growth of a volunteer" led by Mr. Satish T V, HSST, Government Vocational Higher Secondary School Puthur Palakkad. I found the class very motivating and informative. The second class was on the topic "NSS and Social Life" by Sri Brahma Nayakan Mahadevan sir for NSS New Volunteers. I was fascinated by the class, and it was eye-watering for me. The class focused on the painful spaces in social life, and it made me realize the serious responsibility of volunteers. Cothe Life Brahma Nayakam sir, the founder and lifeblood of the Sahajeevanam special school, shared his burning life experiences before us, which was truly inspiring.

The NSS Unit No. 048 volunteers of Little Flower College Guruvayoor for successfully completing the district-level training on Electoral Literacy Club on January 9th, 2023. It's heartening to see the active involvement of NSS volunteers in initiatives that promote civic awareness and engagement.

The fact that the training was conducted by the District Election Office in Thrissur, with the District Collector as the chief guest, underscores the importance and significance of the event. Encouraging young people to obtain voters' IDs and educating them about the significance of participating in the democratic process is a crucial step toward building an informed and responsible citizenry.

Kudos to the volunteers for their efforts, and it's great that they were recognized with certificates for their participation. Such initiatives contribute significantly to empowering youth and fostering a sense of civic responsibility.

The Republic Day celebration at Little Flower College Guruvayur on January 26, 2023. The 74th Republic Day is indeed a significant occasion for India, marked by patriotic fervor and celebrations across the nation.

The fact that the principal, Rev. Dr. Sr. Jeema Therese, hoisted the flag in the presence of NSS volunteers and NCC cadets adds a special touch to the celebration. The involvement of students in delivering patriotic speeches and singing patriotic songs further enhances the spirit of the occasion.

The Republic Day rally and program at the Municipal area of Guruvayoor, involving NSS volunteers and NCC cadets, must have been a powerful display of unity and patriotism. Such events contribute to instilling a sense of pride, national identity, and civic responsibility among the students and the community.

It's indeed commendable to see the NSS volunteers from Little Flower College, Guruvayoor, actively participating in the Three days Residential Skill Development Camp organized by PPTM Arts and Science College Cherur from February 3 to 6, 2023. The fact that this camp is part of the Calicut University Intercollegiate initiative adds a broader perspective to the skill development efforts.

The presence of high-ranking officials such as the Controller of Examination, Dr. Godwin Samraj, along with distinguished individuals like Syndicate member Dr. Rasheed Ahmed and Major Ibraine Kotyadi at the program's inauguration underscores the importance and support for such initiatives.

Residential skill development camps are crucial for students as they provide practical exposure, foster teamwork, and contribute to the overall development of their skills. It's encouraging to see institutions actively engaging in such programs to enhance the educational experience for students

Mammiyur Guruvayur Sandipani Matrisadanam visited by the volunteers of Guruvayur Little Flower College National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit 48 on 11th February 2023.

The volunteers visited Mammiyur Guruvayur Sandipani Matrisadanam on an unspecified date. Matrisadanam is an organization dedicated to protecting elderly and helpless mothers who lack support and shelter. The visit likely aimed to engage with and support the residents of Matrisadanam. The volunteers from Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 actively participated in this visit. Matrisadanam's mission is to provide care and support to elderly and vulnerable mothers who may not have a support system. This initiative reflects the NSS Unit's commitment to community service and support for marginalized and vulnerable groups within society. Participants: Shafna Sherin, Shifana Shari, Thasna Mariya, Akhila K A

The dementia awareness class conducted by Little Flower College Guruvayur NSS Unit on February 21, 2023. The dementia awareness class took place on February 21. Sureshkumar O P, a professional social worker specializing in dementia care, conducted the session. The awareness session focused on dementia, providing valuable information and insights into the condition. The session was described as very informative, indicating that participants gained a substantial understanding of dementia.

Sureshkumar O P shared insights into dementia care, potentially covering various aspects of supporting individuals affected by dementia. The facilitator went beyond theory and provided practical guidance on how to take care of and support individuals with dementia. This initiative by the NSS Unit reflects a commitment to education and community awareness, particularly on topics that have a significant impact on individuals and their families.

The dementia centre was visited by Little Flower College Guruvayur NSS volunteers on February 28. The visit to the dementia centre took place on February 28. The dementia centre was located in Kunnankulam. A few NSS volunteers from Little Flower College Guruvayur actively participated in the visit. The visit provided the volunteers with a valuable learning experience in understanding how to care for individuals affected by dementia. The volunteers learned about the symptoms of dementia, enhancing their awareness of the condition. The experience helped volunteers recognize and understand the different types of behaviours exhibited by individuals affected by dementia. This visit reflects a practical approach to complement the theoretical knowledge gained during the dementia awareness class. It shows the NSS Unit's commitment to gaining real-world insights and experiences to better serve and support individuals affected by dementia.

March 8:women's day celebration

Celebration of International Women's Day by NSS, Little Flower College Guruvayur in association with Chavakkad Municipality on March 8, 2023, and the associated community initiative. The primary purpose of celebrating Women's Day was to raise awareness about the status and dignity of women among the students. As part of the Women's Day celebration, NSS volunteers from Little Flower College took the initiative to clean Chavakkad Beach. This initiative reflects a commitment to both women's empowerment and environmental responsibility. By combining the celebration of Women's Day with a community service project, the NSS volunteers contribute to fostering awareness about gender equality and participating in efforts to maintain a clean and healthy environment

28/03/23 Menstrual cup campaign

A seminar organized by Guruvayur Little Flower College National Service Scheme (NSS) on the topic "Advantages of the Use of Menstrual Cups. The NSS Unit of Guruvayur Little Flower College organized a seminar. The focus of the seminar was on the "Advantages of the Use of Menstrual Cups." Dr. Kasthoory Lal served as the keynote speaker for the seminar. Dr. Kasthoory Lal emphasized the significance of using menstrual cups for women's healthcare during menstruation. The speaker suggested that the time has come to consider menstrual cups as an alternative to other methods, indicating potential advantages. The speaker suggested that other methods may cause physical problems for women, implying that menstrual cups might offer a more favorable and healthier option. This seminar likely provided valuable information and insights into menstrual health and the benefits of using menstrual cups.

The one-day seminar conducted by Guruvayoor Little Flower College National Service Scheme (NSS) in accordance with the instructions of the Vimukthy Mission on 30th March 2023. The seminar was conducted in line with the instructions of the Vimukthy Mission, suggesting a focus on a mission related to social change, upliftment, or liberation. Mr. Derry Paul, Assistant Professor in the Department of Politics, gave the keynote address during the seminar. As per the instructions of the Vimukthy Mission, Shraddha Nerkutam Committees were appointed. These committees are likely dedicated to specific social or community-oriented goals. The seminar also involved the selection of office bearers from among the NSS volunteers, indicating a structured approach to leadership roles within the NSS. This initiative suggests that the NSS unit is actively engaged in addressing social issues and aligning its activities with the broader goals set by the Vimukthy Mission.

International Labour Day

It's great to hear about the two-week agriculture campaign organized by Guruvayur Little Flower College NSS Unit 48 in honor of International Labour Day. Their efforts to raise awareness about the greatness of labor and encourage people to appreciate its significance are commendable. It's important to promote understanding and recognition of the importance of labor, and I'm glad to see such initiatives taking place. The campaign's focus on engaging people in conversations and discussions about labor's role in society is a great way to foster broader understanding and appreciation for the contributions of labor.

International Day of Biodiversity May 22 2022

International Day of Biodiversity was established by the United Nations to raise awareness about the importance of biodiversity in agriculture and the environment. Biodiversity refers to the variety of different species that make up an ecosystem, and it is important for maintaining the health and productivity of agricultural systems. The International Day of Biodiversity is an opportunity to celebrate the rich diversity of life on our planet and to promote conservation efforts.

the proactive engagement of NSS Unit No. 48 from Little Flower College, Guruvayur, in organizing a one-week program as part of the International Day of Biodiversity from May 24 to 29, 2023. Events like these contribute significantly to raising awareness about the importance of biodiversity and environmental conservation.

During such programs, volunteers often conduct various activities such as tree planting, awareness sessions, nature walks, and discussions to highlight the significance of biodiversity in maintaining ecological balance. It's heartening to see educational institutions taking initiatives to foster environmental consciousness and encourage sustainable practices.
