INVESTITURE CEREMONY

Investiture ceremony is an important occasion where a college entrusts its upcoming leaders with certain roles and responsibilities. Delegation of responsibility and giving authority to children is important as it teaches them lifelong skills of being powerful and caring at the same time. Investiture ceremonies in colleges are more than just formal events. They serve as a platform for recognizing and empowering young leaders, instilling a sense of responsibility, and nurturing their potential for the betterment of society. These ceremonies hold immense importance in shaping the character, values, and leadership qualities of students. In this blog post, we will explore the significance of investiture ceremonies in college and how they contribute to the holistic development of students.

The College Union unveiled the name 'ADIRA' in a spectacular fashion, with a captivating flash mob performance, and to everyone's amazement, the name gracefully descended from the highest rooftop of the college building, creating a truly unforgettable moment.

MUSICAL EXTRAVEGANZA

The folk band team of Thrissur known as Kathirola folk band had admitted the college with marvellous rhythm of folk style . The students had a wonderful aesthetic time by listening to the energetic performance held by the team . When the students began to dance on the mesmerised traditional songs of Kerala , it was beign a spectacular day of the college .

Folk music is a music genre that includes traditional folk music and the contemporary music that evolved from the former during the 20th-century folk revival. Some types of folk music may be called world music. Traditional folk music has been defined in several ways: as music transmitted orally, music with unknown composers, music that is played on traditional instruments, music about cultural or national identity, music that changes between generations (folk process), music associated with a people's folklore, or music performed by custom over a long period of time. It has been contrasted with commercial and classical style . The term originated in the 19th century, but folk music extends beyond that.

CHAKYAR KOOTHU

Chakyar Koothu is a performance art from Kerala, India. It is primarily a type of highly refined monologue where the performer narrates episodes from Hindu epics and stories from the Puranas.

The program was conducted as a tribute and as a vote of thanks to our retiring staffs Rev. Dr. Sr. Valsa MA, Rev. Sr.Dr. Vineetha George, Dr. Jessy Anto Therattil.

The chakyar Koothu is performed by Dr. Edanadu Rajan Nambiar, Rajan has won numerous awards including Sutha Vidhushaka Ratnam, Guruvayurappan Medal, Hyderabad Mythri Award, Naatyashri Award, Uthrattadhi Award, Madhavji Award and Shri Badra Award.

Rajan also gives classes in koothu to aspiring artists and gives lectures at different institutions. He has written a book 'Priyakrishnanu Oru Kathu' and many devotional songs. He is also a padhakom artist. Apart from this, he is a magician.

Rajan was trained by magician Shaji Chovvara in exchange for the former's knowledge in mizhavu.

Rajan completed his MPhil and PhD in the Department of Sanskrit Sahitya at Sree Sankara University in Kalady. The artist performs koothu in Malayalam, English and Sanskrit.

"Chakyarkoothu is an art form in which one needs to improvise
