

Association Activity 2018-19

The Department of English, as is always the norm, put forward an excellent plethora of programs and activities during the academic year 2018-19. The department hosted Chakka fest, as part of Environment day celebrations. The event showcased jackfruit, the state fruit of Kerala, and its various uses and benefits. An ornament making competition was also arranged in an attempt to inspire the notion of reuse and recycle among the students.

An interdepartmental PPT contest on child labor was arranged in connection with Child Labour Day. "Eunoia", a creative workshop on poetry and short story was arranged in collaboration with the department of Functional English.

An international Seminar "Horizon of Hope: Can Survive" was arranged in collaboration with the Department of Zoology. A book compilation of the research papers that emerged as part of the seminar was also published. A national seminar "Lives Unmapped: Representations of the Refugee" was organized by the departments of English and Functional English. The event was blessed by the presence of a number of luminous personas like Tenzin Tsundue, Tibetan Refugee poet and activist, Dr. Sivagami IAS, Shaji Kumar and Arshad Batheri.

The department of Functional English hosted a photography contest showcasing the photographic abilities of our students. The FE department also hosted a logo contest on “Audio Visual Heritage” and a quiz competition entitled “Literary Wizard”. A one day seminar “On and Of Theory was arranged wherein eminent academician and translator Dr. Priya K Nair delivered a lecture on literary theory.

The departments of English and FE had been instrumental in hosting Creative forum and Research forum to strengthen the academic and creative pursuits of the students.
