

REPORT OF FOLK LORE CLUB 2014-2019

Folklore is an oral history that is preserved by the people of the culture, consisting of traditions belonging to a specific culture. The real purpose of folkloric tales, though, is to provide historical information regarding the origins of a group of people. Folklore is a platform to exhibit and express our rich cultural social traditional religious heritage. To develop the cultural regional and traditional aspects of Kerala, Folklore club of Malayalam Department conduct seminars, competitions, exhibitions and folklore fest.

Folk Lore Club Activities 2014-2015

In 2014 the Folklore Club was inaugurated on August 22nd by Dr. C R Rajagopalan Professor of Kerala University Thiruvananthapuram. Sr. Sheeba A C HOD of Malayalam department , delivered the welcome speech. Sharmiya Noorudheen gave the vote of thanks. An Exhibition of Indigenous and Ethnic utensils was conducted and also presented Velavaravu an traditional art form of Parayan community. Sumitha P K was selected as the Secretary of folklore club on 06-08-2014. Folksong competition and Folk games was organized by the Folklore club.

