AVON NOVA Club Annual Report 2021-2022

In the spirit of AVON NOVA, our club has been dedicated to fostering creativity and innovation in the Department of English. Throughout the year, we organized various activities and events that celebrated literature and encouraged our members to explore new horizons in expression

World Kindness Day Bookmark Making Contest (13th November 2021):

In collaboration with the Department of English, AVON NOVA organized a bookmark making contest in honor of World Kindness Day. The contest saw enthusiastic participation from 74 students across different departments. An exhibition of the beautifully crafted bookmarks took place on 17th November 2021, showcasing the creativity and talent of our members.

National Education Day 3D Presentation Contest (25th November 2021):

To commemorate National Education Day, AVON NOVA initiated a unique 3D presentation contest, inviting students to creatively depict scenes from various English literary works. The models, crafted within specified dimensions and adorned with relevant literary details, were exhibited on 26th November 2021. This contest encouraged students to engage deeply with literature while showcasing their artistic skills.

Lienzo: Inter-departmental Flashcard Making Competition (7th February 2022):

In celebration of the birth anniversary of Charles Dickens, AVON NOVA hosted "Lienzo," an inter-departmental flashcard making competition. Approximately 15 participants shared their creative interpretations of Dickens' works through visually captivating flashcards. E-certificates were awarded to recognize their efforts and talents.

These events, coordinated by the AVON NOVA club, not only provided platforms for creative expression but also fostered a sense of community among literature enthusiasts.
